8:44 AM Court in session. Case called. Appearances made.

Court rules on pending motions in limine:

Defendant Weideman's motion [76-1] to exclude any argument that consent is not a defense to plaintiff's Eighth Amendment Claim is granted in part and denied in part.

Defendant Weideman's motion [76-2] to exclude testimony or other secondary evidence about the Sports Illustrate magazines, notes, and pictures is denied.

Court turns to voir dire. 25 jurors have reported; 13 will be seated in the jury box and the remaining jurors will be seated in the gallery. Court will instruct full venire to listen closely to all questions. If a juror from the box is stricken for cause, a replacement will be called from the gallery. Plaintiff will have 3 strikes and defendants will share 3 strikes as discussed at the pretrial. Defendant Weideman has a health condition which will require her to leave the courtroom from time to time. Parties have no objection.

Court addresses witness scheduling. Attorney Cade anticipates calling Clements, Goggins, Medema, Klapper and Schueler today; then 3 of plaintiff's family members tomorrow morning.

9:07 AM Court will circulate a clean set of proposed jury instructions and verdict form during the break. Court is not inclined to give an instruction on consent; case is about deliberate indifference-Eighth Amendment. Failure to protect seems more appropriate as to defendant Weideman.
